PRINCIPAL

Dear Members of the Class of 1981:

Having successfully completed your high school education, you should now be ready to take the knowledge you've received and apply it as you begin another phase of your life. Hopefully, the educational, emotional, and social lessons learned at Mansfield High School will enable you to achieve success in all your future endeavors.

Personally, your acceptance of me and my ideas has been a source of extreme pleasure to me and I thank you for your cooperation. As years pass and you recall your days at MHS, I hope that all your memories are pleasant.

Best wishes for a prosperous and healthy future.

Sincerely,

Edward A. Rosa

Death

Death is merely the communal event,
Heeding no damnation nor praise,
At which to the evolving earth we are sent,
Turned under the soil never again to raise.

I fear death not,
Nor does it fear me,
I deviate from the lot,
For death is but my destiny.

by Richard Reed

But Why?

Remember the time
you led me on?
I was such a fool.
remeber the time
you broke my heart?
How could you be
cruel?
The more you did.
The more you laughed.
The more you made me cry
I loved you then.
I love you now.
I always will.
But why?

Little Hornet Nursery School is run by the Preschool Lab and Introductory Child Development Classes. There are 2 sessions: a morning session which runs from March to the first week of June and an afternoon session which runs from October to June. Each year approximately 45 children, ages 2½-5, attend the nursery school 4 days a week.

The High School students develop the curriculum and plan lessons and activities to promote physical, intellectual and emotional development as well as activities to stimulate social relations and play. The director of Little Hornet Nursery School is Gretchen E. Maurer.

In a town which treats field hockey as just another sport, 1980 marked a year of change. For the first time in the history of Hornet field hockey, a team advanced to the State Tournament. In addition, a 13-game unbeaten streak paced the 1980 Hornet girls to the best record ever by a school field hockey team.

Leading the charge in the high-powered offense were the team's All-Hock selections: Sophomore Theresa DeGirolamo and Senior Laura Holske who led the team in scoring throughout the season.

Early in the season things did not go very well. After a pair of victories over Norton the team suffered three losses, one of which was a 4-0 decision to defending Division III state champs, the Canton Bulldogs. Instead of folding after that loss, Coach Hanlon's girls sparked up, tying their next two games before breaking into the win column.

In fact, the team would not lose again until the opening playoff game, in which the Nornets faced rival Foxboro. Tied at one after regulation and a pair of overtime periods, the Warriors eventually prevailed, winning a penalty shootout.

The loss was a hard one for the seniors — Gail Roach, Nancy Harsch, (the captains), Laura Holske, Terri Morrison, and goalie Sandy Paulsen — to take, but the 1980 Hornet team consisted mostly of underclassmen, who will be here again next year to pick up where they left off: as winners.

With the help of a strong group of seniors, the 1980 Mansfield Hornet Football team posted a respectable 7-3 mark in overall play. Injuries, however, almost ruined the season for the Green and White.

After the season's first game, Jon Lucier, who had gone 4-for-5 passing for 137 yards, injured his foot and missed the next eight games. Junior Dave Todesco filled in, but he injured his knee against King Philip, leaving head coach Tony Day without a quarterback.

He inserted John Nordberg, and the Hornets went on a roll. Mansfield downed North Attleboro, 13-7, thanks to Nordberg's play and the defensive performance of Jack Todesco, and lost a tight game to powerful league champion Canton, 8-7, after leading for most of the game thanks to John Wentzell.

The Hornets ended the season on a sour note, dropping a 45-20 decision to Foxboro on Thanksgiving Day. On the season, however, several players shined through, including cornerback Macon Givens, and halfback Jim Pedini, who led the team in rushing.

CROSS COUNTRY — BOYS

Mansfield turned in a 4-6 record this season, despite making strong efforts against some of the top distance runners in not only the league but this SE Mass area.

David Fournier and Dennis Nash paced the team; this pair of juniors continually placed up front for the Hornets, along with senior Ken Loving and a fine group of supporting runners. The lack of the "superstars", though, so to speak, prevented the Hornets from continually cracking into the top positions in most meets. Most Valuable Player was Dennis Nash and Most Dedicated Runner was Dave Fournier.

CROSS COUNTRY — GIRLS

Who's there?

Since this program began a few years ago Mansfield never has produced a sub 500 team. This year became no exception, as the Hornet girls registered a 3-3 record in league action

Senior Kim Miller led the team this season, which received strong showings from the likes of Bridgett Whittington, Debbie Doyle, and Shelley McGown, in most meets

In addition to those usual top finishers the Hornets had considerable depth as well. Most Valuable Player was Kathy King and Most Dedicated Runner was Jackie Nolan.

WINTER TRACK

Even when top flight talent is not abundant, Mansfield still offers a strong indoor track squad. That was evidenced by the team's 5-4 overall record and 4-3 Hockomock League record.

All-Hockomock selection Tim Dion, who was the team's consistent leading scorer, paced the team with strong showings in three events (the shot put, 300, and 50) throughout the season. In addition, Mansfield sported one of the strongest hurdling teams in Eastern Mass. Led by Dennis Levine, Fran Shaw, Louis Boldrighini, and Peter Malewicz, the team placed fourth in the State Meet this season.

The strongest showing of the year for the team came against Franklin, when the team won by an overwhelming score of 60-26.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

It seems strange that the difference between a "good" season and a "bad" season for Mansfield was only a handful of points. Mansfield lost several games by one or two points in finishing with an 8-12 mark.

The first game of the season saw Mansfield defeat Norton on the road, but after that game All-Hockomock league forward Jack Hulburd injured a finger and was forced to sit out five games. In that time Mansfield played some strong basketball, defeating Foxboro in triple overtime 83-78, thanks to Paul Harkness's 27 points and ten clutch tallies from Orlando Rivera. But Mansfield also dropped one point decisions to Canton and to Dighton-Rehoboth, and that set the tone for most of the season.

Among the other big victories for Mansfield were a trouncing of Foxboro 87-69, in the Albertini Gym, a game in which Macon Givens and Rivera each topped the 20 point plateau. Givens also threw in 25 in a victory over Stoughton, and Mansfield finished the season strong by polishing off North Attleboro and D-R. John Nordberg's superb 17 point showing helped the Hornets beat the Falcons, while Nordberg, Harkness, and Hulburd led Mansfield to the win over the Red Rocketeers.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Times have been tough for Mansfield's coach Alex Salachi, whose 1980-1981 girls basketball squad posted a 1-15 league record, defeating only Franklin at home for the lone triumph.

Leading the way in the scoring category was senior Laura Holske, who registered an average around ten points per game for most of the season despite nagging injuries. Salachi's team, however, was mostly inexperienced, consisting primarily of underclassmen. Among the juniors were Lisa Tartufo, who became a prime offensive weapon toward the end of the season due to her fine outside shooting. The other seniors were Maggie Jardin, Terri Morrison, and Liz Tighe.

As was the trend in most of the Hornets girls' sports, much of the team boasted a group of sophomores. In the backcourt as starters were Gina DiGiovanni and Theresa DeGirolamo, and coming off the bench was Michelle Tartufo and Michelle LaMarre. Freshman Lori Faumier saw considerable action as back up center. The Hornets came together as the season drew to a close, making a strong run at one of the league's best teams, Sharon; Lisa Tartufo's shooting and a strong rebounding performance by the rest of the forecourt has Mansfield within four points in the fourth quarter before the Eagles finally pulled away.

CLASS OF 1981

Class Song '81

"WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN"

Words By Paul Williams
Music by Roger Nichols

We've only just begun to live
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way
We've only just begun

Before the rising sun, we fly
So many roads to choose
We start out walking and learn to run
Yes, we've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us
Watching the signs along the way
Talking it over just the two of us
Working together day to day, together.

And when the evening comes, we smile
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow
And yes, we've just begun.

None of the men pictured above finished school.
But as history proclaims,
they all made it.

As a high school graduate,
you've had the benefit
of a good education.
With that advantage,
and your own unique gifts,
perhaps you'll achieve even more than these great men.

You're off to a good start.
The people of
The Foxboro Company hope you make the most of it.
